The sponsoring organizations invite you to join in an intensive three days of dedication towards God's blessings and purposes in our personal lives, businesses and careers. During the week-end, attendees will be presented with topics for consideration and have opportunities to discuss the materials and share in prayer and testimony. The retreat is directed towards Christians seeking a spiritual encounter with the Lord.

Theme

“Consecrated to Prosper” – retreat scripture from Judges 18:5 “ask counsel of God, that we may know whether our way shall be prosperous”

Subject Matter

- Freewill as God's gift of love and the restrictions imposed because of agency
- Natural man's rejection of Spiritual insight and the transformation into Spiritual awareness
- Covenant relationship and accountability
- Aligning our purposes to God's purposes
- Spiritual growth and the awakening of our spiritual sight and hearing
- Action plan for our businesses and careers

Attendees should be able to dedicate the entire 3 days and nights to fellowship, sharing and learning. Arrival, registration, and settling into dorms begins at 4:30 pm on Thursday afternoon. Events on Thursday begin with supper, promptly served at 5:30 pm followed by a full compliment of evening activities. All day Friday and Saturday are dedicated to teachings, activities and fellowship. Sunday continues with half-day activities terminating at 2:30 pm.

Full Weekend Participation

Part-time participation will not yield full benefit of the purpose for the retreat. We strongly recommend only full-time participation and therefore request all interested participants to clear their schedule so they will not be distracted between Thursday’s arrival and Sunday’s departure. Do not bring distractions to this weekend such as electronic devices which would otherwise occupy your attention and focus on God.

Facilities

Bob White is a semi-rustic group camping area with cabins arranged in a dormitory style setting. (Semi-rustic denotes that there is no room service, no carpeted floors, and no housekeeping staff to cater to patron’s needs.) Bunk beds and bathrooms are located in the dorms which accommodate single gender residency. Attendees will be required to bring their own bedding. For those attendees who require bedding please make note in your registration form or contact the registrar. Feel free to bring a space heater. The facilities provide an atmosphere to commune with God, friendships to develop, and intimate discussions to be held among participants.

Attire

Attire for the weekend is casual and comfortable. April and May in Missouri may feel colder to those who live in southern climates. Bring long sleeves and jackets. It is better to dress in layers. As weather permits, we will hold some of our activities outside. This time of year may also be breezy or rainy. Sturdy shoes that work well in wet weather and mud are advisable. Bring warm bedding such as sleeping bag and blanket.

Meals

Experienced personnel will prepare the meals and menus. Food will be wholesome and appetizing with a salad bar provided at every meal. Contact the registrar for questions about the menus or for special dietary needs.

Presenters

Edward Glaser – Entrepreneur, business coach and management consultant

Paul Glaser – Attorney and entrepreneur

Danny Goold – Spiritual Leader and prayer intercessor
